DISCLOSURE

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

NOTICE TO MARRIED WISCONSIN APPLICANTS: No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement under s. 766.59, Wis. Stats., or a court decree under s. 766.70 Wis. Stats., adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time the credit is granted or an open-end credit plan is entered into, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement, or decree or has knowledge of the adverse provision.

Section 1014 of Title 18 of the United States Code was amended to make it a federal crime for any person to knowingly make any false statement or report, or willfully overvalue any land, property, or security for the purpose of influencing in any way the action of any bank the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

AGREEMENT

I/We Certify that everything stated in this application and on any attachments is true and correct and that by signing below, I/we agree that this statement shall remain your property, whether or not the application is accepted. You are authorized to make all inquiries you deem necessary to verify the accuracy of the statements made herein, and to determine my/our credit worthiness including but not limited to procuring consumer reports from consume reporting agencies and credit information from banks and other financial institutions and extenders of credit, references, present and former employees, merchants, landlords, and creditors. Each applicant consents that, upon denial of this application-based consumer report or information received from a person other than a consumer reporting agency on any applicant, you may disclose the information to all applicants in any notification or report required by Federal Law.

We may report information about your account to the credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.
